Brutos™

END-TO-END BEVERAGE MANAGEMENT SOFTWARE for brewers and distillers.

Your passion for brewing or distilling has produced a vibrant, growing business—but if you're mired in inefficient processes and time-consuming administrative work, you've probably outgrown the basic accounting apps and spreadsheets you rely on to run your business.
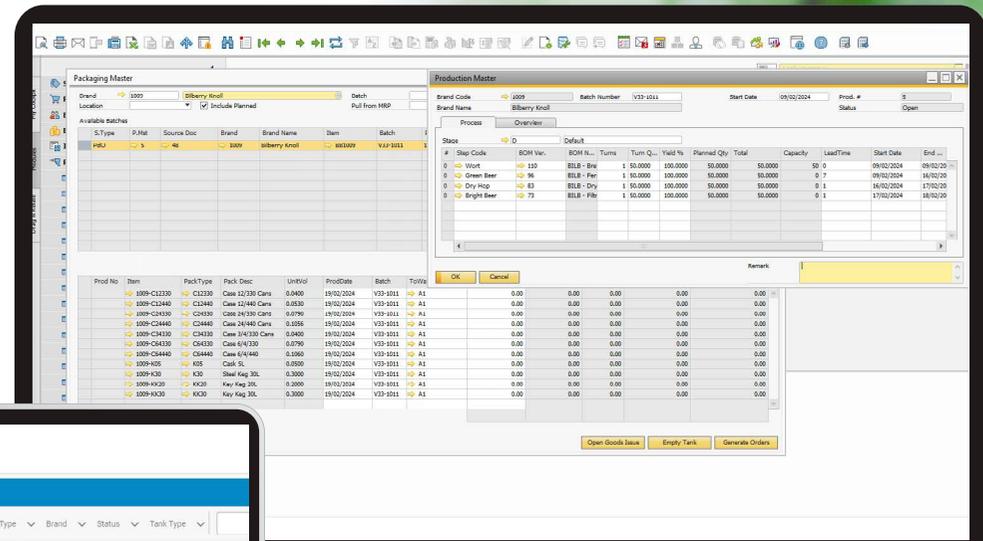

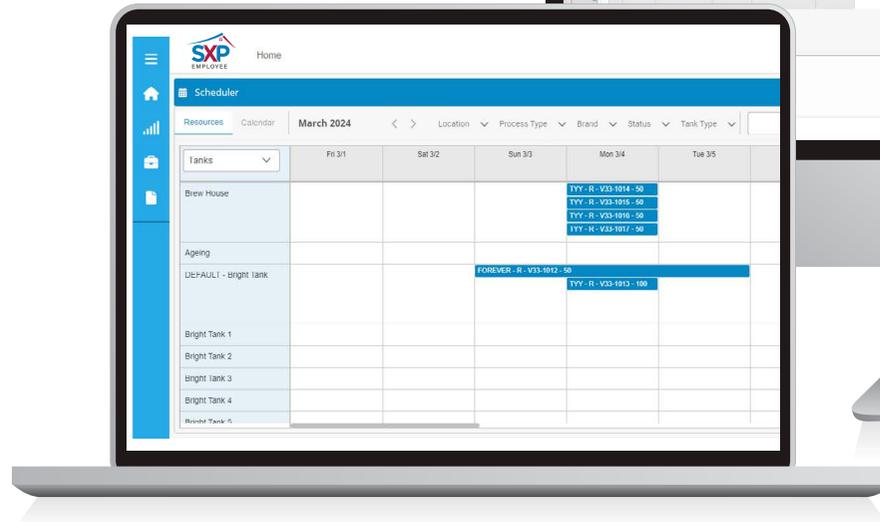

But now there's Brutos.

Brutos by Vision33 is easy-to-use beverage management software for brewers and distillers. It provides 360-degree visibility into your company's finances and operations for enhanced decision-making, heightened efficiency, and complete control.

It unites data from across your business by combining front- and back-office functions such as accounting, sales, production, packaging, brand management, inventory, and warehousing in a single cloud-based solution with anytime, anywhere access.

Brutos harnesses the power of SAP Business One, a best-in-class business management solution trusted by growing businesses worldwide.

Say goodbye to a patchwork of spreadsheets and apps, and "cheers" to a unified view of your business.

IMPROVE DECISION-MAKING
Centralized data, dashboards, and real-time reports eliminate data silos and provide 360-degree visibility into financial and operational health so you can make confident decisions.

ADAPT TO MARKET CHANGES
Maintain your competitive edge with a system that grows with you and enables you to quickly change course, such as manufacturing a new line of RTDs, managing a recall, or introducing new co-packing services.

STREAMLINE AND SCALE OPERATIONS
Digitize, automate, and track processes, workflows, and data to streamline daily operations, plan and coordinate production cycles, and close efficiency gaps within and across teams.

EASILY PREPARE TAX REPORTS
Automatically identify and record taxable transactions and ullages to quickly calculate what you owe and then generate TTB, EX46, or other required reports.

OPTIMIZE CONTROL
Monitor critical metrics —like inventory levels, production costs, and profit margins—in real-time with KPI dashboards, rules, and alerts.

IMPROVE REGULATORY COMPLIANCE
Easily track, capture, and report critical tax, quality control, and traceability data to ensure compliance with regulatory agencies.

REDUCE WASTE
Use improved insights to reduce waste from brewing to packaging.

How Is Brutos Different?

Brutos is designed specifically for brewers and distillers by business process experts. It combines back-office and beverage management capabilities on a single platform, centralizing data from across your business and uniting your team for unbeatable efficiency.

The Value of Brutos
With business data at your fingertips, you'll be primed to drive growth and scale effortlessly.
